A monthly newsletter for
The Gypsy Tolers

Proud chapter of the Society of Decorative Painters

Hi Gypsy friends!

Oh my goodness—February 2021 is here already and we still haven't see each other! I know we're all just done with this virus thing, but now with the vaccine being given out, maybe soon we will be able to meet—we can only hope!

Our first paint-in of the year went well!! Thanks Kim and Jeannetta—we appreciate all your hard work. Amazing how many new painters we have joined us and some even joined Gypsies so we want to welcome them. We hope all the new members enjoy our group.

I would like to hold a Board meeting Monday, February 8 at 3:00 pm PT. It will be at O'Flanarys and on Zoom. I need some to show up in person to help me with the Zoom part of the meeting. Masks will be worn and we will social distance. We have a few things to look over but it shouldn't take too long. Please let me know if you can attend.

The next paint in is the cutest little candy jar done with Liz. We've all met Liz at the Summer Sleepover and she has taught in person for Gypsies a few times. It's an adorable Easter design and we would love to have you all join us on Zoom. The deadline for sign-ups is February 19, 2021. You will be able to pick up your prepped surface at O'Flanarys or Kreative Klutter or at a cost, we can ship them to you.

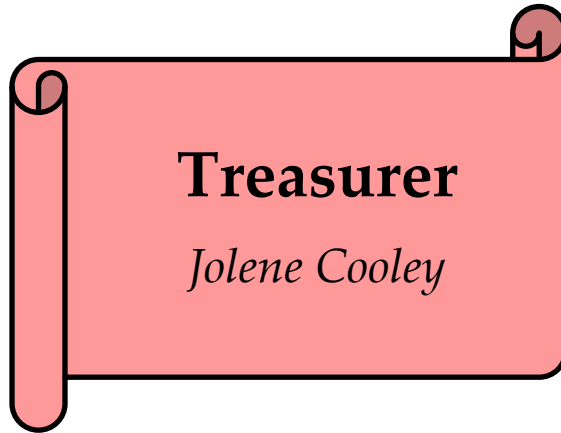

I hope I have covered everything we might need to know about—because we don't meet in person and a lot of our activities have been shut down, there's not a lot going on. Don't hesitate to call me or stop by if you have a question on anything.

I also want to thank all the Board members for their continued hard work and keeping us on track during these difficult times. Wishing you all the best until we can meet again—virtual hugs and kisses for a quiet, safe Valentine's Day!

Blessings, Judy

Hello Gypsies!!

As January is coming to a close, it has saddened me to see everything that has happened in the last year. Our world is in turmoil and I see no relief in sight. My belief in God is tested and my feeling is he has “left the building”.

I have been working in my house slowly and taking my time. Since I retired I view things differently. I’m no longer in a hurry to get places and I do not freak out in line. I also will not wait in long lines these days, but I know our future will be lines.

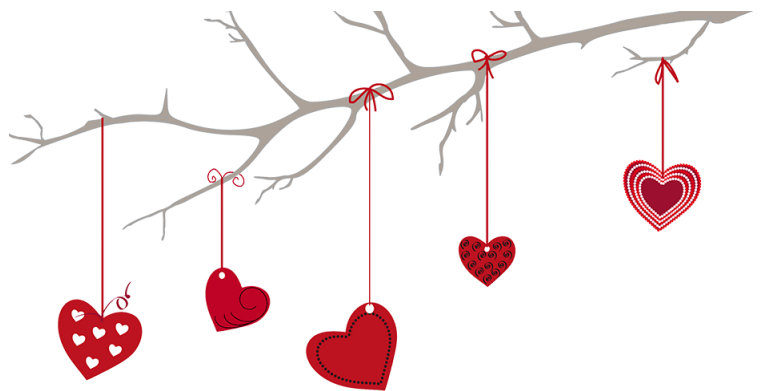

I’ve halted fine painting for a little while; my hands have been giving me issue too, so they are taking a break. I have been working on a Haunted Mansion wall in my house. I used roc-lon and painted the stripes from the stretching room. I am putting together a puzzle of the stretching pictures and will frame those. I have a nice collection of Funko pops that are characters of the Haunted Mansion. When I get that done, I will put a picture of it in the newsletter. I figure—it’s my house; I can decorate it the way I want...LOL!

The only thing I still am so happy I did was get the new roof—we had horrible winds and then that wonderful rain, thunder and snow storm recently. My new roof held up well.

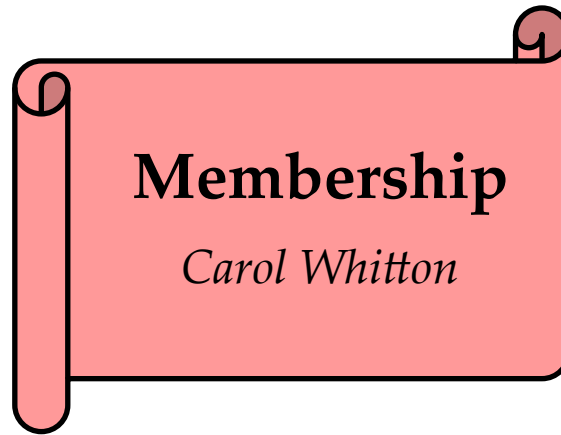

Pixiedust has been doing GREAT! Although she likes to go outside in the middle of the night a lot. I got the new Ring doorbell system, but it’s disturbing as I get updates from other neighborhoods and many coyote sightings about a mile from me.

A really nice thing about my daughter—she was awarded Employee of the Year at her work! I’m very proud of her!

I hope all is well with everyone out there. Hopefully we can start meeting again in person and be able to see you! Be well and safe!!

With love,
Cheryl Jones, Secretary

February 2021 Membership Report for Gypsy Tolergram

Hope you are all staying dry and safe this winter season. I love looking up at the mountains with their fresh dusting of snow while staying warm and cozy in my home! Great weather for painting, isn't it? I'd like to welcome six new members to our Chapter – Marion Barnett, Linda Kapp, Annette Lamarre, Sherri Lee CZT, Carolyn Swasey, and Katy Taylor. At the advice of SDP, I will no longer publish their information in the newsletter. Rather, I will send it to you all via email so that you are able to include it in your directories.

There are still a few members who have not returned their updated 2021 Gypsy New Membership & Renewal Form and/or verification of SDP renewal for 2021. If you still need to get this information to me you may do so via snail mail (13995 Ivanpah Road, Apple Valley, CA 92307) or email (whit4kids@aol.com). Members have until the end of February 2021 to get their SDP verifications to me in order to qualify for the lower cost on projects.

We, of course, are still accepting new memberships. Dues for new members will remain at $20.00. A copy of the 2021 Membership cover letter and the 2021 New Membership & Renewal Form is attached for you to share with friends and colleagues.

Should you have any questions or have any changes to your information that needs to be updated, please feel free to contact me.

SNOW beautiful SNOW!!! Just a tad bit! If you live in an area recently compromised by fire, please be on the alert for potential mud and debris slides. Have an emergency kit handy, to-go-bag in your car in case your area gets evacuated while you are away, at least 3 days worth of food, meds, water, clothes, pet supplies. Also, make sure to update your emergency plan and important contact phone numbers. We never know when disaster may strike, and it's better to plan for the worst, pray for the best! Enjoy this cold wintery weather!

Hi everyone...as last month, I still need socks and jackets. Even if we are not meeting, the need is still there! If you don't want to shop, but can donate, please do so and I'll shop! Just drop whatever off at O'Flanary's Emporium and I'll be sure to pick them up.

Thank you! Jan
