

Gypsy Toler Artist Guild

Hello Gypsies!

What a beautiful sunny morning it is here again today! Don't you just love it? Our rainy winter gifted us with so many colorful wildflowers and beautiful sights! I am loving it all! Well, let me correct that.. All of it except the weeds. The term "growing like a weed" certainly makes sense to me now.

A big thank you to all who painted with Judy last month! What a cute project and she always has so many great painting tips she shares. Great class! Thank you Judy. Be sure to sign up to paint the colorful and cute piece with Deb Ramo this month. The patriotic design is perfect for Memorial Day and our upcoming summer months!

I have emailed a survey asking for our member's input. Thank you to all who have responded. The results will be shared and discussed with the board to help decide on future meetings and events. We want to hear from everyone. This is your guild and it's a great way for you to be heard. Please try to respond before May 6. The board will be meeting again on May 8 to discuss the results as well as so many other things. Did you know all members in good standing are welcome to attend a board meeting? It's a great way to see what we do and maybe it will entice you to hold a board position in the future.

Have you signed up for the Gypsy Toler Art-rageous Painting Party yet? There are only a few seats left so what are you waiting for? It will be a fun time with friends! The kits and swag are being assembled this week and will be ready to be shipped to our Zoomers mid May. How excited are you all? We sure are! Just a side note, maybe the projects aren't something you think you would be interested in. Not only can we all learn something from every class/teacher, but think of the fun you have when you paint with others! I hear all the time, people say they aren't crazy about a project so they don't sign up. I too am guilty of that but are we missing out? You betcha we are in more ways than one!

For those lucky members who attended the Pacific Expo in Oregon, we can't wait to see all your pics and hear all about it! Next year it will be longer and have many classes! There is another new one popping up in Tennessee next year. Registration for the New England Traditions one (Net) opened up yesterday and they already had over 300 registered in the first afternoon! OKC Painting Palooza registration has been open and I know several of you plan to attend this great event! So many choices out there again along with all the classes being offered on Zoom. It is obvious to me that painters are tired of not getting together with friends and are ready to go back to the old days of in person events. So exciting!!

Have a wonderful week and I hope to see you all painting along with Deb on Thursday May 18. Heidi

Charities:

Regina Taylor

Here I am again sharing info regarding our charitable endeavor..... it was extremely disappointing to experience the lack of involvement the first month of our support to Angels Closet. I realize there is probably a challenge since we aren't meeting in person, but monetary donations are always welcome. Just to report, we only had two people (Heidi and myself) that donated socks for our first month donation. As a result, some thought was given on how we proceed with our charity giving, if we even provide this at all. My thought was, instead of monthly donations, we focus on two or three donations over the remainder of the year. This was discussed at the last Board meeting, and the Board was in agreement. With that in mind, we have decided to change direction.

Hopefully most of you are attending our Art-rageous Painting Party in June at the Burrage Mansion. We are so fortunate to be able to paint at this INCREDIBLE venue!!! In case you don't know, the Burrage Mansion is dedicated to providing a safe haven where less-fortunate children have a chance to play and dream. We understand currently the Mansion is in need of books to supplement their library for the children.

If you are attending the Art-rageous Painting Party in June, we ask that you bring a new or gently used children's book (or 2 or 3, or more) for donation to the Mansion's library. If you have grandchildren, perhaps you can look through their book stash and find a book or two they have already read, or have outgrown that can be donated. Used books can be found at yard sales or thrift stores. Target generally has children's books on sale every week. The Dollar Tree and the 99 Cent Store also have children's books. And finally, if you are not attending in person, a monetary donation is acceptable. Please send your check, payable to Gypsy Tolers with a notation that the check is for the book donation. We will then use your donation to buy a book for donation.

Thanks so much for your support to our charitable endeavor. Any questions, please contact me: (626)675-6592; bpapoohbear51@yahoo.com

After having a bit of a rocky start at our March program with Judy Coates, we enjoyed a fabulous evening with her “bee-u-ti-ful” project, “I Love America.” We can always count on learning new and different techniques from Judy when she teaches. We were not disappointed, one more time!

As I’ve shared previously, we have quite a line-up of talented teachers for our remaining programs for the year. Fliers for May, June, July, and August are attached. You may sign up at any time.

Don’t miss out. Sign up now!

Hi Gypsies:

Summer is here! At least today, who knows about tomorrow with our crazy weather.

The Art-rageous party is almost here and wait until you see all the raffle prizes we have for you. Thanks to Cheryl, Cecilia, and Heidi—we made a good start at cleaning out the Gypsy's storage unit. So much good stuff in there—this raffle will remind you of the awesome raffles we had at summer sleepover, in the old days. There will be some large pieces of wood this time, so come prepared. We will be using the same ticket system as last time. It simplified the drawing process. There will also be a lot of free wood so for all of you that paint to sell, it will be a gold mine.

We can still use gift cards. If you have any that you are not going to use, feel free to drop them off at O'Flanary's or mail them to me. Also gift baskets will be greatly appreciated.

Hope you're joining us June 9th and 10th at the Mansion. Paint projects, food, games, raffles and friendship. What fun!

Carm & Cheryl

Gypsy Tolers Board Meeting

Called to Order on: February 08th, 2023, at 9:30 am

By: Heidi Allison, President

Approved April 12, 2023

Board and Committee members present: Heidi Allison, Janet Mitchell, Ursula Peine, Jolene Cooley, Cecilia Luk, Bonnie Dominguez, Carmelita Brooker, Georgia Magarrell, Carol Whitton, Judy Coates, and Nancy Schatz.

President, Heidi Allison:

LapTop: Our new laptop was purchased. The price came in around $800.00 with tax.

Cash Register: Approval came in for the cash register. Cecilia Luk is working on finding a cash register that will run an accurate Z report. We will be standardizing tags for all future Heritage sales.

Spring Exchange: 28 members have signed up so far. Heidi will be sending out the rules again. It's so nice to see lots of friends being made throughout our guild.

Spring Event: We are working on a name and theme for our function. Committee is coming together. We have 4 teachers; Liz Vigliotto, Heidi Allison, Janet Mitchell, and Judy Coates. The food will be catered as this takes place in lieu of a summer sleepover. The event will be zoomed and in person. Our site looks to be the Burrage Mansion. Looking to be a 2 day event. Friday night and all day Saturday. All teachers will receive kits and will not be charged. Committee members will receive 50% off. We are finalizing dates and working on a price.

Fall Function: We also plan on hosting a fall function. Tentative date has been set for 10/21/23.

Programs, Carol Whitton:

Programs are all set for the year. We have received many compliments on our set up. I am being contacted by teachers who would like to teach the following year. We usually have 20-30 participants in each program.

San Bernardino Fair: All members are encouraged to set aside projects to submit this year to the fair. Carol made the motion we buy gift cards as prizes for each category so our art will continue to be displayed. Janet Mitchell seconded motion. Motion passed.

Treasurer, Jolene Cooley:

Currently our check book balance is $14,260.00. Jolene is working on our finalized budget for 2022. We made more income last year than expenses. She has sent out the 1099's to teachers. She is also working on the 2023 budget.

Storage Unit: Carol Whitton made the recommendation that we go through the unit and clear it out. We need to set a date to do so.

Secretary, Ursula Peine:

Presented January 2023 minutes. Motion made by Cecilia Luk to approve, and Jolene Cooley seconded. Motion carried.

Membership, Janet Mitchell:

We currently have 119 members for 2023. 36 of our members are out of state. We are still waiting on 8 members from 2022 to renew.

Minutes continued:

Newsletter, Nancy Schatz:

Please have all articles in by the 28th of each month.

Ways & Means, Carmelita Brooker/Cheryl Jones:

Would like to continue to give away 1 free class and 1 gift card for each program. It is going well. They are working on raffle prizes for our spring program.

Heritage Sale, Cecilia Luk:

Working on securing a location with lots of foot traffic for the sale. Would also like to enlarge our budget and provide tags for the vendors.
Discussed increasing fees for vendors next year to include a $25.00 per table fee for members and $40.00 table fee for non-members. Sales percentage to increase to 15%.

Meeting adjourned at 11:30 am. Minutes Respectfully Submitted by Ursula Peine.

San Bernardino County Fair:

Carol Whitton & Sue Clark

Many thanks to our members who submitted entries to this year's Fair - Cecilia Luk, Terri Mullin, Donna Petrillo, Kim Tamiazzo, Diana Van Riel, and Carol Whitton. I can't wait to share pictures of the beautiful entries we received. The judges are going to have a very difficult time making their selections for the Best of Show winners in each division. Good luck to each of you!

I may be contacting those of you who reside in the Southern California area to help out at our demonstration table during the Fair. This gives us an opportunity to share our craft with the public and to talk to them about our Guild possibly recruiting some new members. Plus, our volunteers receive a FREE gate and parking ticket. So, before or after your "shift" you could enjoy the many exhibits, food, vendor shows, animals, and amusement rides. Fair hours are 2 - 10 pm.

Last, it's NOT TOO LATE to begin thinking about the 2024 Fair! Any project you start or finish after the Fair closes this year is eligible to enter. My tip is to have a bin or special area in your house where you set aside items you'd like to enter. We have four divisions - Novice (Beginner), Intermediate, Advanced, and Professional. You compete against other painters of like ability. Most importantly, however, it's a time for us to share with others about decorative painting! Those of you who do not reside in or close to the area may enter too!

In the spirit of Jane Haggard, that's all the "nagging" I'll do for now.
