Now for the fine print.

Zoomers will not receive the stepping stone due to the weight and expense of shipping. Stones are available at local home improvement centers or nurseries. This is one of the reasons why the Zoom price is discounted. Zoomers pay the shipping of the event kit. We will use the least expensive way to save you money. In person people who opt to have their kit shipped will also pay shipping. Your swag will not be shipped but will be waiting for you at the event.

Price of admission includes: 3 classes with 3 different teachers, surfaces for all three classes (Zoomers receive 2 surfaces), fun swag, continental breakfast, lunch and dessert for in person and a bonus project to be done on your own. Not to mention a fun filled day of painting with friends!

Registration fee is non refundable.

Registration can be paid by check, cash, credit card or invoiced through Paypal.

We will have a wonderful raffle as usual thanks to Carm and Cheryl for gathering and organizing it. Of course we would love any and all donations for this raffle to make it even more special. Maybe you have a special painted piece or a gift card? Zoomers are able to participate in the raffle of gift cards. Who doesn't love a gift card?

The kids at the Mansion are short on art supplies. We are asking everyone to look through your brushes or any other art related things you may have to donate at this event. Of course you are always welcome to buy new things also or even a cash donation (check works too) and we will pass that along. Thank you all for helping out the kids!

Any questions, please feel free to reach out to myself, Judy Coates, Janet Mitchell or Jolene Cooley.

See you all there! Heidi Allison (909)583-3169 periwoods@aol.com
