Happy New Year Gypsy Tolers!

I hope this finds you all happy, healthy and rested from the beautiful holiday season we just had! This is the time when we reflect on the past year and make resolutions for the new one. Well, I won't be making any resolutions but do plan to make some changes in my life—the most important one is to slow down a bit and enjoy each and every minute I have...I hope you all do the same!

What an amazing Christmas part/seminar we had! Thank you so much to Patti, Carolyn and their helpers! It was magical other than the issues we had with technology. We will be taking care of our Zoomers, not to worry! As for the virtual cookbook, I am working on it, but could really use some more recipes. Things got a little hectic that day and I am afraid I didn't get all the recipes. If you would like to email me your favorite cookie or even soup recipe, please do. This is for all Gypsy Tolers, not just the party attendees.

At the party, a scalloped heart cut-out was handed out with a little paper written by Lisbeth. It talked about a possible Valentine swap using this cut-out. Did you get one? Are you wanting to participate? Let me know as soon as possible please. This swap doesn't have to be a big one with all the extras. You can just paint your heart and decorate it any way you like. This will keep the shipping cost down for you too...could be fun!

Your Board is busy planning the year and if you have any requests or wants, please let me know. One very important thing I would like to know from each of you is, if we had a Summer Sleepover event—would you attend? It has been a few years since we were able to have this fun-filled event and we would like to bring it back, but only if we have interest. If not for an entire weekend, how about a one-day painting event? This could be with a local teacher or two or we could bring in an out-of-town teacher and treat it as a seminar instead. Please let me know your thoughts...

If we can secure a location to hold our monthly meetings, would you attend in person this year? We would continue to Zoom regardless because we have so many out-of-the-area members, but I have had several requests to get our group back together in one place each month. Our members miss the fellowship, potlucks and raffles along with all the other good times we have had.

There was a recommendation by a member to change our name to Gypsy Tolers Artist Guild. We will vote on this at our January meeting. Please log on to vote even if you aren't planning on painting the cute Sandra Malone Valentine piece Terri Mullin is teaching. We will also be discussing bylaws and standing rule changes that night. This month is a very important month to speak up if you have any thoughts or ideas.

Take care and I look forward to serving all of you again this year! Heidi

Happy New Year Everyone!

In case you haven't heard, the Gypsy Christmas Party/seminar was a huge success. A few technical issues that have been worked out, but it was a fun day. I want to thank all of you who contributed to the successful raffle—those who donated and those who purchased tickets. The funds raised from these raffles contribute to the costs of the club events, so thank you all again.

It's a new year, with new events being planned. So once again it's me reminding you, donations are always welcome.

Best Wishes to you all for a healthy and prosperous 2023! Carm
