A monthly newsletter for
The Gypsy Tolars

Proud chapter of the Society of Decorative Painters

Hi my Gypsy friends!!

It's the end of April and what gorgeous weather we are having! I went from UGGs yesterday to flip-flops today—LOL...only in Southern California!

Well our Summer Non-Sleepover is in full swing and if you haven't signed up for it, you should definitely do it! It's not just some Zoom class...it will be a whole weekend full of fun. The Committee is in full force and on it—it's gonna be GREAT!

I want to remind you all to please not forget about our charity—Angels Closet! Although we can't donate clothes that are used because of Covid, you could donate $5 or $10 that we will give to them to help buy what they need. Or, how about socks or school supplies—anything like that would be helpful and so greatly appreciated. These kids are all homeless and need our help—they are all Redlands children!

This month's painting with Linda LaRocco is all set up and ready to go. Hope you're all going to join us!

I'd like to call a Board meeting on Thursday, May 13. We have lots to discuss about the projects we have going on and things that are coming up. It will be at O'Flannary's at 2:00 pm PT.

That's it for now—hope you all have a great Mother's Day!

Blessings, Judy

Secretary

Cheryl Jones

Hello Gypsies!

As April is closing on us and May is coming into view, I am looking forward to my daughter, Erin's, birthday on the third. I am also looking forward to a road trip in June and July, but every time I mention that...it gets cancelled! I'm supposed to spend a few days in San Jose for a first birthday party and then onto Washington to see my sister. Then I'm off to Oregon to see my brothers. Pixie will be joining me on this venture. We practice going in the car several times a week. She hates it when I leave the house without her and she definitely makes her opinion heard—she has a bark like no other dog I know!

Hopefully the Senior Center will open up in the near future and our meetings can resume. I'm not a big Zoom person; I like seeing people in person and I'm sure there are more of you like me.

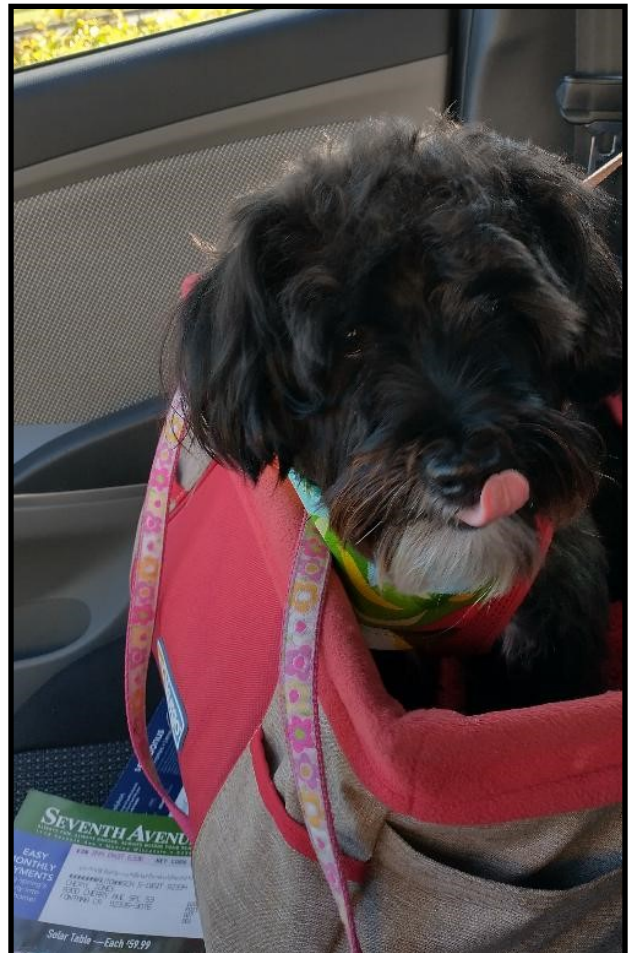

I'm enjoying Judy's Friday night on Facebook; I hope you are checking that out. I'm still having some issues painting. I recently tripped into a bookcase and jammed my right hand, fingers and arm. I thought for sure I had broken something; saw stars and just stood there. I had the hand x-rayed—no break—but it really jammed my fingers from my middle to the little finger. I am feeling that trigger finger will be in my future for my right hand. I am used to it in my left, but I thought my right would be saved. I guess not! I am okay, just more pain to deal with and I really hate that...

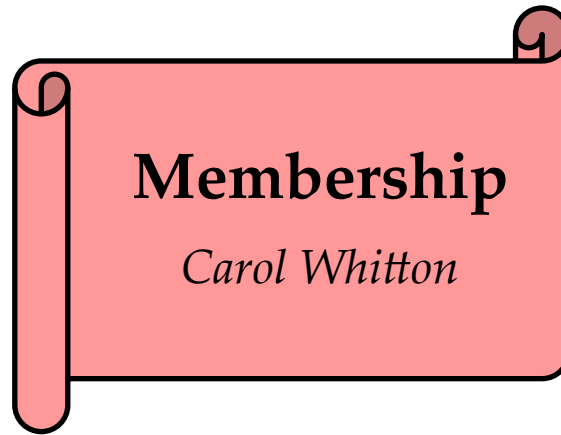

I hope everyone has a wonderful Mother's Day. If you're not a Mom, celebrate it as "You" day—we all deserve a day!

Cheryl Jones, Secretary
